

Year 4 CERES Excursion

Dear Parent/Guardian,

As part of our Geography Program, the Year 4 students have been studying Africa and comparing it to Australia. To assist the children to understand the African way of life we are going to visit the African Village at CERES in Brunswick. The students will participate in traditional celebrations, dances, songs, games, activities and learn traditional drumming techniques. We will require a parent helper per class.

Where: Ceres Community Environment Park, Brunswick

When: Thursday 9th November
4KK, 4RW and Year 3 students from 34S

Friday 10th November
4DM, 4MP and Year 4 students from 34S

Departure: 9:00 am and will return to school by 3:30pm

Cost: $30:00

What to bring: A small backpack with snack, lunch and drink bottle all clearly labelled. Sunscreen if needed throughout the day

Dress: Full school uniform including school hat. Appropriate clothing for the predicted weather

The signed permission notice and money is due no later than Thursday 2nd November.

Thank you for your support,

Year 4 Teachers

Mareeka Papadopoulos, Dennis Mazzella, Robyn White, Kellie Kalolo and Heather Stevenson
